Veterans Organize to Back Ballot Proposition No. 2

Representatives from every major veterans organization in California met in Sacramento Thursday to formally organize the California Veterans United Committee For Proposition No. 2, according to Walter E. Bennett, adjutant of Torrance Barracks 1920, Veterans of World War I.

John R. Hann of Merced, junior past commander, Department of California, American Legion, was elected chairman of the drive, and James Kehoe of San Mateo, past department commander of AM-VETS, was named co-chairman.

OTHER officers include secretary-treasurer John A. Ertola of San Francisco; Alva J. Fleming of Sacramento, past department commander, Veterans of Foreign Wars, coordinator; and Irving Klein of Santa Rosa, past chairman and present member of the California Veterans Board, finance chairman.

The group will undertake the short campaign for successful passage of the Cal-Vet bond issue in the June primary election.

JOHN R. HANN, upon election to chairmanship, set a keynote to the drive when he stated:

"Certainly when the voters see this passage won't cost them a cent, they will give their stamp of approval. Veterans of California have never asked for nor received a bonus from the state and that's the way we want it."

Harbor District Camp Fire Girls Receive Awards

Torrance Park was the scene of an awards ceremony Friday evening, which honored Camp Fire Girls of the Harbor District for their achievements during the year.

The girls wore their ceremonial costumes to the event. One group of girls created an Indian sand painting in front of the council fire which had been built by other groups.

Blue Birds were invited and those who attended sang their Blue Bird "Wish Song" for their older Camp Fire friends.

High school seniors who wish to apply for specialized Navy training may qualify now and delay enlistment until after their graduation in June under a plan announced this week by Chief Ernest G. Roth, recruiter in charge of the Torrance station.

Under the procedure announced by Roth, the Navy's "stay in school" policy permits an applicant for one of the Navy schools avoid the red tape by disposing of preliminary testing now and qualifying with a high school diploma just before enlistment.

Further information may be obtained from Chief Roth at the station at 1520 Cravens Ave.
